

wisconsin has a no call list that has been working well.

Do not let the national association of banks change or weaken this law.